The Old Reliable Jewelry House

of Hopkinsville is, after all, the best place to get anything in the jewelry line. There's a record behind us, a record of over thirty years; a clean record of satisfied customers, a record of honest dealing, for honest quality, honest prices. It's a record any jeweler might feel proud of. And when we sell an article we have in mind that we have a record to maintain, and no slipshod methods, no careless workmanship, no lack of quality, is ever allowed to mar the record of the past. But to improve, if possible, this record, is ever our aim, and goods are sold for as low a price as it is possible to sell reliable goods.

It will pay you in the end to deal with the Old Reliable Jeweler.

MAY ACCEPT LOUISVILLE OFFER

To Finance the 1906 Crop for Western Kentucky Tobacco Raisers.

THE SOCIETY OF EQUITY

Warehouse Company Willing to Furnish One Million Dollars in the Deal.

Owensboro, Ky., May 14.—At a meeting here of the committee of the American Society of Equity, which is an alliance of the tobacco raisers of Western Kentucky, it was decided to report favorably on the plan or offer of the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Company to finance the 1906 crop. The Louisville people offer $1,000,000 on the crop, advancing $5 on A, B and C grades, $4.50 on D grade, $4 on O and H grades, for two years, until the tobacco is sold. It will take a million dollars or more to handle the crop of 1906, and Owensboro was not prepared to advance more than $150,000.

The directors of the society met in the court house Thursday last and decided to hold the first annual conference of the society in Owensboro on July 10, when it is expected fully 7,000 people will be in the city. The society was organized at Greenville a few months ago and has made rapid strides, and is now one of the strongest farmers' organizations in the South, covering Western Kentucky and Northern Tennessee.

Louisville and Greenville were after the meeting in July, but Owensboro lent it.

TWO SUITS.

Plaintiffs Pray Damages From I. C. Railroad.

Owen Glaspy has filed suit against the Illinois Central Railroad Company for $2,000 damages. Glaspy was a section hand and was injured by being run over by a handcar near the city a few weeks ago. It seems there were two handcars, on which hands were going out to work, and the rear car ran into the forward one. Plaintiff claims that the appliances on the rear car were so defective and unsafe that it could not be controlled. His injuries consisted of a broken leg and several fractured ribs.

V. R. Blakeley and J. D. Blakeley vs. the Illinois Central Railroad Company, is the style of another suit for $250 damages. Plaintiffs state that the defendant company, through its agents and servants, tore out a cattle gap, where the Bellevue road crosses the railroad right-of-way, and thus left exposed their crops of wheat, rye, corn and grass and that same was totally destroyed by stock.

LIFE SENTENCE

Given Negro Formerly of This County.

Major Gaither, the Christian county negro who was charged with the murder of Scott Holman, another negro, at Earlington last Christmas, pleaded guilty at Madisonville and the jury fixed his punishment at life imprisonment. It was the general opinion that the death penalty would have been given the negro had he not entered a plea of guilty and asked for mercy.

THE TOWN COW GOES MAY 31ST

Compromise By Which All Litigation Has Stopped,

INJUNCTION DISSOLVED.

End of a Fight Extending Over a Period of More Than 12 Months.

Attorneys C. H. Bush and John Feland, representing the anti-stock law organization, on Friday offered to withdraw their injunction suit if the mayor would hold up the enforcement of the stock ordinance till June 1st. The proposition was accepted by Mayor Meacham and City Attorney Knight and a written agreement was entered into and the injunction was dissolved at Eddyville Saturday.

Citizens interested in the new law had retained Mr. Hunter Wood, Sr., to assist the city attorney in the case and they were confident of having the case dismissed. An appeal would have left matters unsettled for some time and the compromise was a very sensible adjustment of the matter. The additional month given the cow owners to arrange for pasture, is ample time and at last we can state definitely that the town cow will soon be a thing of the past on the streets of Hopkinsville. The agreement will have the force of an order of court and positive assurances are given that no further resistance will be made to the law after June 1st.

The fight against the cows has been extended over more than a year's time. Last June, after a stock ordinance was passed, political complications were threatened and to avoid them the council repealed the law June 22. In his inaugural message Mayor Meacham recommended its re-enactment and by a vote of 4 to 3 the ordinance was again passed in March, to take effect May 1st. The compromise postpones its operation thirty days. The order of court is given below:

Christian Circuit Court.

Alice Moore, plaintiff

City of Hopkinsville, D'ft. } Order

This day this cause came on to be heard upon motion of defendant to dissolve the temporary restraining order herein, and notice of said motion having been given plaintiff, and the court being sufficiently advised, it is ordered and adjudged that said motion be and is hereby sustained and said restraining order is hereby dissolved, and it is adjudged that plaintiff pay the clerk and sheriff's costs herein, provided, however, it is ordered by agreement of parties that plaintiff and every other owner of any milch cow, or cows in the city of Hopkinsville, may turn such milch cow, or cows upon the public streets, alleys or commons of said city, between the hours of sunrise and sunset for every day until the 1st day of June, 1906.

May 12th, 1906.
